STUART YOUNG

Takes His Own Life At Louisville to Escape Disgrace.

Short In His Accounts As City Treasurer to the Amount of $23,000.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 28.—Stuart Robinson Young, former City Treasurer, former Assistant Postmaster of Louisville, clubman, and a bridegroom of but a few weeks, took his own life last night by shooting himself through the brain with a .38-caliber Smith & Wesson revolver. Mr. Young retired from office about ten days ago and an examination of the accounts has revealed a shortage of about $23,000, though the exact amount has not been officially ascertained. Although friends stood ready to make good every dollar, he was not able to stand the threatened exposure. For several days he had been drinking rather heavily and was in no condition when the crisis was reached to endure the shame. In this mood he rashly ended his life before his friends had an opportunity to come to his assistance, although offers of help were made when the first rumors of trouble began to circulate.

Mr. Young was married last August to Miss Bessie Wymond and lived with his bride at the Louisville Hotel.

He was a son of Col. Bennett H. Young, was 34 years old and a graduate of Princeton College.

AFTER COAL

And When Detected Knocked Down L. & N. Brakeman.

Samuel L. Morgan, an L. & N. freight brakeman, was struck on the head with a rock or lump of coal by an unknown negro in the yards here at an early hour Tuesday morning and badly hurt. A gash several inches in length was cut and the loss of blood was considerable. Morgan claims the man was attempting to steal coal from his train when he came upon him, and that when he ordered him away the negro struck him. The negro made his escape.

While Morgan's injuries are very painful they are not considered serious.

The couple will make their home here, where the groom is engaged in the fruit business with his brothers.

The wedding took place at the residence of Dr. W. L. Nourse, the officiating minister.

The young people are quite popular in North Christian society. The groom is a brother of Rev. Alex McCord.

STATE WEAKENS.

Nortonville Strikers Given Liberty Without Bonds and Back in Camp.

Soldiers Defied and Houses Being Erected For Hundreds of Agitators.

Madisonville, Ky., Nov. 28.—The examining trial of the twenty-one miners was called before County Judge Hall yesterday. The prisoners were all brought into court guarded by Deputy Sheriffs. Attorneys Cliff Waddell, J. Fleming Gordon and County Attorney Morrow appeared for the Commonwealth; Judge R. H. Bradley, Everett Jennings and Jerrold Johnson represented the defendants. Every man in the court room was searched for weapons by the Deputy Sheriffs.

After a conference between the attorneys of both sides which lasted some time, Judge Hall released the twenty-one prisoners on their personal recognizance to appear before the Circuit Court and answer to any charge that may have been found against them by the grand jury.

This proposition was made by the prosecution. The union officials and their attorneys took on this as a big victory.

The charge against the miners is confederating and banding together for the purpose of intimidating nonunion miners. Only the prisoners, attorneys, court officials and newspaper correspondents were admitted. A large crowd was in town, attracted by the trial, but for fear something might be done to cause trouble it was deemed best to refuse admittance to everyone except those interested.

The Strikers' Hotel.

Fifty men are now at work on a building at Nortonville that will accommodate five hundred union miners. The building will be erected on the site of the old campground which was disbanded Sunday. This ground, which consists of several acres, has been leased by the union strikers.

It is the intention of the union officials to build several more large houses at Nortonville. When completed these buildings will be occupied by all the union miners and their families in the strike district. President Wood said that by January 1 he expected to have three thousand people at Nortonville, and would make this place union headquarters.

Judge Hall's Course Unknown.

Judge Hall when seen this morning refused to say what action he will take against the union miners who have returned to Nortonville. He said he did not have time to discuss the question. It is known, however, that he has a personal representative at Nortonville investigating the situation. When this man reports Judge Hall will make known what action he will again call on the miners at Nortonville, whether camped in tents or in houses, to disperse, and should they fail to comply with his orders he will again call on Gen. Murray and his troops to disperse them.

The Murdered Miner.

The death of Burt Williams, the union miner, whose body was found lying near the track of the Illinois Central railroad not far from Nortonville, with a gunshot wound in his body, is still worrying the authorities. An inquest was held and the verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death from a gunshot inflicted by unknown parties.

Hand Badly Cut.

Mr. Thurmond Richards, a clerk for Shadoin & Curtis, fell from a bicycle Wednesday and one of his hands was quite badly cut. He was riding in the store when he lost control of the wheel and fell.

SHOT IN SIDE

By Her Sweetheart, But Wound is Not Serious.

Jealously Causes "Scrap" at Empire And Miner Uses Savage Rifle With Effect.

Jennie Campbell, col., was shot in the side by a coored coal miner named Couch, at Empire Monday night. The weapon used was a Savage rifle and the shot was fired at close range.

It seems that the parties had been sweethearts for some time, but the woman had recently been receiving the attentions of another.

This enraged Couch and he attacked her with the result as stated. Couch fired two shots and then fled and had not been heard from up to noon yesterday.

It is believed that he is hiding in Hopkins county. The ball made only a flesh wound and the woman is not thought to be seriously hurt.

BRAMBURG-KLEEMAN.

Marriage of a Young Nashville Doctor to Miss Kleeman.

Dr. Perry Bramburg, of Nashville, Tenn., and Miss Daisy D. Kleeman were married last evening, at the home of Mr. Henry M. Frankel, on South Main street. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Lewenthal. It was a very quiet affair, on account of recent deaths in the family. The groom is a prominent young physician and a member of the faculty of the University of Tennessee.

His bride is a daughter of Mr. Wm. Kleeman, of Clarksville, and a sister of Mrs. Frankel, at whose home the marriage took place. The ceremony was held at 8 o'clock p. m.

QUIET MARKET.

But Little of The Weed Sold This Week.

County Full of Loose Buyers And Many Contracts Made Clarksville Getting Sliced.

Sales of the weed this week were small and were made up principally of lugs and common leaf. Prices were about the same as those of last week's quotations.

Receipts were also small. The loose market is inactive, owing to a lack of stock, but this line of the business will improve materially as soon as the weed begins to move.

The recent damp weather had the effect of bringing tobacco in moderate order, but the weed was so dry that it soon got beyond the point of banding again. A real good season is much desired by the farmers as they are nearly all anxious to put their crops upon the market. Buyers are out in full blast all over the country and many crops, over Christian County and many sold. Hopkinsville buyers have made many purchases in the county, while Clarksville dealers have also made some contracts in South Christian.

Prices being paid range from 5c to 7c round. Some farmers have been visited during the past week by a dozen buyers and all of their offers were rejected.

HANCOCK-MANN.

Trigg County Farmer Weds Lady in This City.

Mr. George B. Hancock, of Trigg county, and Mrs. Minnie J. Mann, of this city, were quietly married at the home of the bride at 8 o'clock p. m. Wednesday.

A DIVORCE CHART.

States of the Union Where the Law Is Lenient.

An enterprising publishing firm has put on the market a rather unique document. It is nothing less than a divorce chart of the United States from which unhappy couples can quickly learn in what state they can get separated with the greatest ease and ease, says the Salt Lake Herald.

"By mere pleasure," it explains, "the particular information sought may be obtained. The form and manner in which the laws are placed before the reader are as simple as comprehension for the layman as they are for the lawyer."

The chart, it is to be feared, will do much to put a damper on the divorce industry of South Dakota, Idaho, Nebraska and Nevada are equipped with just as rapid-fire divorce laws as the more widely advertised state. In fact, they beat South Dakota on every material point, for while the last named state does not permit the remarriage of a guilty defendant on either side, they also require less of an action than South Dakota, contrivance cases just as liberal and demand no long residence.

But easy does not mean "easy" in the east just as well as in the west. Still old Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York and New Jersey, both themselves and all at length of residence, are not so easy as they are in the west. They are more provide a liberal number of cases, for persons desiring to get a divorce from.

"I wrote Dr. Pierce regarding my case, and received a prompt reply, free."

"I endured nearly four years of suffering," writes Mrs. L. Myers, of Washington, W. Va., "caused principally from improper medical attention after the birth of a child, and female weakness, resulting in a complication of diseases. Had a terrible cough and an incessant pain and soreness in lungs. Was reduced in flesh from 184 pounds to about 100 pounds in eighteen months. I had no appetite, and became so weak and nervous I could scarcely sit up. I doctored with our home physicians for two years with no benefit. I was finally induced to try Dr. Pierce's medicine."

I wrote to Doctor Pierce regarding my case, and received a prompt reply, free, and the proper medicine for my case. I received four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' three doses each day, also taking one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla and some of his 'Pilets.' I ceased coughing, and am now enjoying splendid health and have gained five pounds in weight. I again feel like my former self. I thank Dr. Pierce and his great medicine."

Sick persons are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter FREE. All correspondence carefully attended to, and all communications guarded by strict professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PROFITABLE CARELESSNESS.

How a Saddle Was Paid For Forty Times.

A very amusing tale is told by a famous story teller about a harness maker who had a shop many years ago in a fashionable street in the West end of London. He had a handsome saddle in his shop, occupying a conspicuous position therein. On his return from luncheon one day he observed that the saddle was gone. Calling to his foreman, he said:

"John, who has bought the saddle?"

"I'm sure I don't know, sir," said the foreman, scratching his head, as if he were trying to think. "I cannot tell, and the worst part of it is, it hasn't been paid for. While I was at work in the back of the shop a gentleman came in, picked it up, and, throwing it into his dog-cart, drove off before I could think to ask his name."

"That was very stupid of you," said the harness maker, dis-pose to be angry at the man's carelessness. "Very likely he was robbed."

"I don't think that, sir," said the foreman, for I am sure that the gentleman has traded here before."

"Well, I can't afford to lose the money," said the harness maker. "We'll have to find out who took it and find him the bill. Ah!" he added, with a smile, after a moment's reflection. "I have it. We'll charge it up to the account of every one of our customers who keep open accounts here. Those who didn't get it will refuse to pay, so we shall be all right."

The bookkeeper was instructed to do this, and the bill was at once put into circulation. Some weeks later the harness maker asked the bookkeeper if he had succeeded in recovering the money.

"No, sir," he replied, "and we never shall. I fear, sir, for about 40 people have paid for it already without saying a word."—London Tit-Bits.

ENGLAND'S FIRST EARL.

He is Duke of Norfolk and considered the Finest Chief of British Catholics.

The Candid Friend, a London paper, announces that the duke of Norfolk is going to marry Lady Alice Fitzwilliam, who recently became a Catholic. Lady Alice, Mary Fitzwilliam, is a daughter of Earl Fitzwilliam. She was born in 1840. The duke of Norfolk was born in 1847. He married in 1871 Lady Anne Hastings, who died in 1887. He has one son living, the earl of Arundel and Surrey, who was born in 1870.

The duke of Norfolk is the premier earl of England, his title dating back to the ninth century, and is of a family whose position as nobles is older than any now existing in Europe. He is a great marshal and chief butler of England, and as such has had the distinction of important questions in connection with the coronation of King Edward, such as the making up of a list of those entitled to witness the ceremony. As earl marshal he led the procession at Queen Victoria's funeral. In the last few months the duke has been the center of an extremely bitter religious controversy. This began when, visiting the pope in Rome at the head of a party of English pilgrims, he offended the friends of the Italian royal family by expressing in an address to his holiness the hope that the new century would see the restoration of the pope to temporal power. The secular press in Italy denounced the duke, who is considered the spiritual chief of English Catholics, as an impudent intermeddler, a dangerous agitator, and an enemy of free and independent Italy. There was a storm in Protestant England also over the matter, and some English papers declared the duke had insulted the king of Italy. The duke's position as secular head of English Catholics dates back to his youth, when Cardinal Newman addressed to him the famous "letter" in reply to Gladstone's anti-Catholic pamphlet. He has been called "the pope's favorite son."

NOVEMBER 29, 1901.

The date of King Edward's coronation has been fixed for June 25.

Mon. Robt. H. Bradley, representative from Hopkins county, professed religion this week at a revival going on at the Baptist church in Madisonville.

When Gen. Murray next tries to suppress rioting in Hopkins county, he should get the names of some of his prisoners from the hotel registers at Madisonville and Nortonville.

Congress will convene Monday for the short session before the holiday adjournment. The message of the new President is said to be very lengthy, but conservative in tone.

Former Gov. Davis H. Waite of Colorado, left dead at Aspen, Col., while peeling apples. He had been in good health up to the morning of his death. It is believed that the cause of death was heart trouble. Gov. Waite, from a sensational speech he made several years ago, was often referred to as "Bloody Bridles" Waite.

The county and state authorities both having failed in their feeble efforts to restore order in Hopkins county, the course pursued by the state, Bernard Campbell, was about the only one left for that big corporation with $1,000,000 worth of property at stake. It is now incorporated under the laws of Delaware and as a position to demand protection from the Federal courts.

Judge Geo. F. Campbell, formerly judge of the Hopkinsville court, and now of Bardonia, Ky., is a candidate for door-keeper of the House, at Frankfort. Judge Campbell has an extensive acquaintance in many portions of the state and will enter the race with a strong following. George is a good Democrat, weighing about 300 pounds and no better man could be found to block the way of those not entitled to admission to the chamber.

WENT TO TENNESSEE.

South Christian Couple Cross Line With Matrimonial Intentions.

A telephone message from Beutetsdown Wednesday night stated that Robt. Southall, son of Dr. J. A. Southall, of the Pee Dee neighborhood, and Miss Gertrude Wall, daughter of Mr. J. B. Wall, of near Bennettsown, had gone to Tennessee for the purpose of getting married. Nothing has since been heard of the young people and the supposition is that they have had the nuptial knot tied ere this.

Union Thanksgiving Services.

Union Thanksgiving services were held at the Baptist church yesterday. Rev. E. L. Southgate, of the Methodist church, preached the sermon of the occasion.

Cataract Cannot Be Cured

Hall's Cataract Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Cataract Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Cataract. Send for testimonials free.

F. J. CLENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Every man who has had cataract should know that he can cure it.

Aching Joints

In this country, many people are suffering from aching joints, and it is a common complaint. It is often caused by rheumatism, and it is a very painful condition. It is often caused by rheumatism, and it is a very painful condition.

PREPARING PLANT LAND.

Some Farmers Already Burning Beds for Spring Sowing.

The weather for the past few weeks has been fine for farm work. Considerable fallowing has been done and much work that is usually laid over for spring has been disposed of. Some plant land has already been burned and will be prepared for use fully three months earlier than usual.

A Mothers' Medicine.

There is never any question of the value of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in the minds of those who have used it as a preparation for maternity and for the reason that every woman who has experienced maternity has a definite standard of comparison by which she can measure the difference in her condition with and without the health giving aid of "Favorite Prescription."

For example Mrs. S. E. Rose, of Big Otter, Clay Co., West Va., writes Dr. Pierce as follows: "I am the mother of five children and have been as high as eight days in the doctor's hands and never less than two days at any time until the birth of my last child. Then I had used two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and the doctor was with me only two hours."

Every mother will appreciate the force of that testimony. There is no chance for error or forgetfulness in such a case. It is a plain statement of fact: one hundred and ninety-two hours of suffering reduced to two hours by the use of "Favorite Prescription."

This shows what help "Favorite Prescription" renders in extreme cases. In the ordinary case of childbirth the use of this medicine makes the baby's advent practically painless. Thousands of women testify to this. Mrs. W. J. Kidder, of Hill Dale Farm, Knobsburg, Va., says that she was in fast failing health and with the trial of motherhood before her, when she began the use of "Favorite Prescription." The result was to quote the exact words of her letter: "I began to improve immediately; my health became excellent and I could do all my own work. I had a short easy confinement and have a healthy baby boy."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription by its remarkable tonic properties, puts the system on a basis of sound health. Nature does the rest. Nervousness, morning sickness, loss of appetite, despondency and anxiety are all cured by the use of "Favorite Prescription." It gives great physical vigor and muscular elasticity, which explains the practically painless birth hour. It also induces a free flow of the nutritive secretions so that the mother is abundantly able to nurse and nourish her babe.

It is any wonder that many a grateful woman's letter ends in terms similar to that of Mrs. J. W. O. Stephens, of Mt. Northumberland, Va., who writes: "I am heartily advising expectant mothers to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

Will Present "Thelma."

On Thursday evening, Dec. 5, at Holland's Opera House, Mr. Aiden Benedict, the well known producer of popular and realistic plays, will present Mr. W. W. Chase's very popular play, "Thelma." Mr. Chase needs no introduction, as he is well known to all theatre-goers. "Thelma" is in four acts and includes all the principal and interesting scenes of the novel. The Altos Pford, the death of the Viking on the burning ship, the Aurora Horally and the new storm. The company, which is an excellent one, includes many

IN CONFERENCE.

Six Democrats at the New Council Selected Officers.

Dead Lock Results in Two of the Places on Account of Ties.

Councilmen Dav S. Duncan, Galbreath, Jackson, West and Whitlow, representing six of the seven wards, met in conference at the Hotel Latham Monday night and after a session of three hours announced the following nominations: For Mayor, Jettie Henry. For City Judge, Douglas Bell. For City Clerk, Charlie Jackson. For Treasurer, Walker Wood. For Attorney, Jack Hanbery. For Chief of Police, Geo. Steele. For Assessor, George Bradley. On the following night the following additional nominations were made:

Policemen, E. H. Armstrong, Geo. W. Walker, W. E. Shanklin and B. J. Mathews (present chief) of the old force, and D. M. Floyd and Booth Morris. Officers Cravens, Wilkins and McCord were left off.

The present Fire Department was continued without change.

On the selection of a tax collector there was a tie, Gus Tandy and Phil Gaither receiving three votes each.

The same result was reached in the contest between Garret Dalton and John A. Twyman for street superintendent.

The meeting after many fruitless ballots adjourned and will let Councilman Glass, the colored Republican member, break the ties on Dec. 6th.

The new council will go into office next Monday.

The officers to be elected on December 6th will not qualify until the first Tuesday in January.

World's Highest-Priced Illustration.

F. M. Howarth, who makes the funny pictures on the front color page of the Sunday St. Louis Post-Dispatch, is probably the highest paid artist in the world. His contributions, which for several years formed the chief feature of Puck and made this New York comic weekly famous, attracted the owner of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and Howarth was hired outright at a high salary. The funny part of the Sunday Post-Dispatch is funnier than ever.

"Thelma."

Readers of popular novels will rejoice to hear that Marie Corelli's much talked of novel, "Thelma," has been dramatized and will be produced by Aiden Benedict's company at Holland's Opera House on the evening of Dec. 5. The version is by Chase W. Chase and undoubtedly destined to live a long and popular life. All of the main incidents of the book have been carefully reproduced in the drama. The players and costumes have been selected with the utmost care.

NOVEMBER 20, 1901

The date of King Edward's coronation has been fixed for June 25.

Hon. Robt. B. Bradley, representative from Hopkins county, professed religion this week at a revival going on at the Baptist church in Madisonville.

When Gen. Murray next tries to suppress rioting in Hopkins county, he should get the names of some of his prisoners from the hotel registers at Madisonville and Nortonville.

Congress will convene Monday for the short session before the holiday adjournment. The message of the new President is said to be very lengthy, but conservative in tone.

Former Gov. Da is H. Waite of Colorado, fell dead at Aspen, Col., while peeling apples. He had been in good health up to the moment of his death. It is believed that the cause of death was heart trouble. Gov. Waite, from a sensational speech he made several years ago, was often referred to as "Bloody Bridges" Waite.

The county and State authorities both having failed in their feeble efforts to restore order in Hopkins county, the course pursued by the St. Bernard Company was about the only one left for that big corporation with $1,000,000 worth of property at stake. It is now incorporated under the laws of Delaware and on a position to demand protection from the Federal courts.

Judge Geo. F. Campbell, formerly judge of the Hopkinsville court, but now of Bardonia, Ky., is a candidate for Door-keeper of the House at Frankfort. Judge Campbell has an extensive acquaintance in many portions of the state and will enter the race with a strong following. George is a good Democrat, weighing about 300 pounds and no better man could be found to block the way of those not entitled to admission to the chamber.

WENT TO TENNESSEE.

South Christian Couple Cross Line With Matrimonial Intentions.

A telephone message from Ben Bennett Wednesday night stated that Robt. Southall, son of Dr. J. A. Southall, of the Pee Dee neighborhood, and Miss Gertrude Wall, daughter of Mr. J. B. Wall, of near Bennettsville, had gone to Tennessee for the purpose of getting married. Nothing has since been heard of the young people and the supposition is that they have had their nuptial knot tied ere this.

Union Thanksgiving.

Union Thanksgiving services were held at the Baptist church yesterday. Rev. E. L. Southgate, of the Methodist church, preached the sermon of the occasion.

Death Near Pembroke.

Frank McKee, Jr., aged 10 years, son of Mr. B. F. McKee, of near Pembroke, died Monday from the effects of rheumatism.

Cataract Cannot be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Cataract is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Cataract Cure strikes internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Cataract Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. The best tonic known combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Cataract. Send for testimonials free.

P. J. CHERRY & CO., Toledo, O.

Every man has a shadow of cataract in his eye, and it is only a matter of time before it will be manifest.

Aching Joints

In the treatment of aching joints, the most important thing to remember is that the cause must be removed. If the cause is not removed, the pain will continue to recur. The most common cause of aching joints is rheumatism, which is a blood disease. It is caused by an accumulation of uric acid in the blood, which is then deposited in the joints, causing pain and inflammation. The only way to cure it is by taking a course of treatment that will purify the blood and remove the uric acid.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine that will do this. It is a blood purifier and a uric acid remover. It will cure aching joints, rheumatism, and all other blood diseases. It is the most powerful medicine ever discovered.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove the cause of rheumatism—no outward application can. Take them.

PREPARING PLANT LAND.

Some Farmers Already Burning Beds for Spring Sowing.

The weather for the past few weeks has been fine for farm work. Considerable fallowing has been done and much work that is usually laid over for spring has been disposed of. Some plant land has already been burned and will be prepared for use fully three months earlier than usual.

A Mother's Medicine.

There is never any question of the value of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in the minds of those who have used it as a preparative for maternity, and for the reason that every woman who has experienced maternity has a definite standard of comparison by which she can measure the difference in her condition with and without the health giving aid of "Favorite Prescription."

For example Mrs. S. E. Rose, of Big Otter, Clay Co., West Va., writes Dr. Pierce as follows: "I am the mother of five children and have been as high as eight days in the doctor's hands and never less than two days at any time until the birth of my last child. Then I had used two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and the doctor was with me only two hours."

Every mother will appreciate the force of that testimony. There is no chance for error or forgetfulness in such a case. It is a plain statement of fact: one hundred and ninety-two hours of suffering reduced to two hours by the use of "Favorite Prescription."

This shows what help "Favorite Prescription" renders in extreme cases. In the ordinary case of childbirth the use of this medicine makes the baby's advent practically painless. Thousands of women testify to this. Mrs. W. J. Kidder, of Hill Dale Farm, Knoxville, Va., says that she was in fast failing health and with the trial of motherhood before her, when she began the use of "Favorite Prescription." The result was, to quote the exact words of her letter, "I began to improve immediately; my health became excellent and I could do all my own work. I had a short easy confinement and have a healthy baby boy."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription by its remarkable tonic properties, puts the system on a basis of sound health. Nature does the rest. Nervousness, morning sickness, loss of appetite, despondency and anxiety are all cured by the use of "Favorite Prescription." It gives great physical vigor and muscular elasticity, which explains the practically painless birth hour. It also induces a free flow of the nutritive secretions so that the mother is abundantly able to nurse and nourish her babe.

Is it any wonder that many a grateful woman's letter ends in terms similar to that of Mrs. J. W. C. Stephens, of Mills, Northumberland Co., Va., who writes: "I am hesitatingly advise expectant mothers to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

Will Present "Thelma."

On Thursday evening, Dec. 5, at Holland's Opera House, Mr. Aiden Benedict, the real life producer of popular and realistic plays, will present Mr. Chas. W. Chase's version of "Thelma." Mr. Chase needs no introduction, as he is well known to all theatre-goers. "Thelma" is in four acts and includes all the principal and interesting scenes of the novel. The Alton Ford, the death of the Viking on the burning ship, the Aurora Horally and the snow storm. The company, which is an excellent one, includes many

IN CONFERENCE.

Six Democrats on the New Council Selected Officers.

Dead Lock Results in Two of the Places on Account of Ties.

Councilmen Davis, Duncan, Garbreath, Jackson, West and Whitlow, representing six of the seven wards, met in conference at Hotel Latham Monday night and after a session of three hours announced the following nominations: For Mayor, Jouett Henry. For City Judge, Douglass Bell. For City Clerk, Charlie Jackson. For Treasurer, Walker Wood. For Attorney, Jack Hanbury. For Chief of Police, Geo. Steele. For Assessor, George Bradley. On the following night the following additional nominations were made: Policemen, E. H. Armstrong, Geo. W. Walker, W. E. Shanklin and B. J. Mathews (present chief) of the old force, and D. M. Boyd and Booth Morris.

Officers Cravens, Wilkins and McCord were left off. The present Fire Department was continued without change. On the selection of a tax collector there was a tie, Gus Tandy and Phil Gaither receiving three votes each.

The same result was reached in the contest between Garner Dalton and John A. Twyman for street superintendent. The meeting after many fruitless ballots adjourned and will let Councilman Glass, the colored Republican member, break the ties on Dec. 6th.

The new council will go into office next Monday.

The officers to be elected on December 6th will not qualify until the first Tuesday in January.

World's Highest-Priced Illustration.

P. M. Howarth, who makes the funny pictures on the front cover of the Sunday St. Louis Post-Dispatch, is probably the highest paid artist in the world. His contributions, which for several years formed the chief feature of Puck and made this New York comic weekly famous, attracted the owner of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and Howarth was hired outright at a high salary. The funny part of the Sunday Post-Dispatch is funnier than ever.

"Thelma."

Readers of popular novels will rejoice to hear that Marie Corelli's much talked of novel, "Thelma," has been dramatized and will be produced by Aiden Benedict's company at Holland's Opera House on the evening of Dec. 5. The version is by Chas. W. Chase and undoubtedly destined to live a long and popular life. All of the main incidents of the book have been carefully reproduced in the drama. The players and costumes have been selected with the utmost care.

The New Virginia Street Building Will Be Occupied Monday.

The Virginia Street Public School will, on next Monday morning move into the elegant and costly new building on the lot adjoining the temporary building that has been in use for several years. As soon as the classes are re-arranged there will be eight rooms instead of four occupied. The old frame building is for sale and when disposed of will be moved off the school lot.

The schools adjourned Wednesday afternoon for Thanksgiving and there will be no session until Monday, the interval being taken up in moving the desks, etc, from the old building.

NEED MORE SCHOOLS

In Order to Cope With The Tremendous Illiteracy.

M. G. Crumbaugh, Commissioner of Education for Porto Rico, in his annual report says that 1,000 schools there, good as they are, cannot successfully cope with the tremendous illiteracy and the vast army of children in need of education in Porto Rico. There were 34,000 children in school this year, and the enrollment next year will be 50,000. A large normal school has just been opened at Rio Piedras to meet part of the demand.

THOMAS W. LADD, Cashier.

Senator Restored to Health
Peruna as a Nerve and Catarrh Tonic
the Talk of the World.

Sen. W. V. Sullivan, U. S. Senator from Mississippi.

Hon. W. V. Sullivan, United States Senator from Mississippi, in a letter recently written to Dr. Hartman, from Oxford, Miss., says the following of Peruna as a catarrh remedy:

"For some time I have been a sufferer from catarrh in its most incipient stage, so much so that I became alarmed as to my general health."

"But, hearing of Peruna as a good remedy, I gave it a fair trial and soon began to improve. Its effects were distinctly beneficial, removing the annoying symptoms, and was particularly good as a tonic."

"I take pleasure in recommending your great national catarrh cure, Peruna, as the best I have ever tried."

Miss Irene Cooper, Assistant Superintendent of the Old People's Home, Chicago, Ill., also has a good word to say for Peruna. In a letter written from 888 Prairie avenue, Chicago, Ill., she gives in the following words her experience with the national catarrh remedy, Peruna:

"In these days of all kinds of medicine it is a comfort to know of a remedy which may be used with unquestioned beneficial results. I gladly recommend Peruna as a safe, reliable remedy in cases of catarrh of the stomach, helpful in building up the system worn out with overwork or age."

"Several of my friends who have used Peruna have spoken of it in the highest terms, and I congratulate you on its merits."

Mrs. W. B. Grissom, Henry, Ellis Co., Texas, writes:

"I took Peruna faithfully over two months, and the result is a thoroughly renovated system and a strong, buoyant feeling, to say nothing of a cure of the chronic catarrh. Therefore I shall avail myself of every opportunity to speak of Peruna as a catarrh cure."

Mr. Harry M. Stevens, Midland Beach, L. I., New York, proprietor of "The Richmond" Hotel, says of Peruna:

"It gives me pleasure to testify to the value of Peruna. I have used it for years and have found it to be a most excellent family remedy. For colds, catarrh and similar ills, it is unsurpassed." Cordially and gratefully,

T. M. Stevens.

Catarrh is a systematic disease, curable only by systematic treatment. A remedy that cures catarrh must aim directly at the depressed nerve centers. This is what Peruna does. Peruna immediately invigorates the nerve-centers which give vitality to the mucous membranes. Then catarrh disappears. When catarrh is permanently cured.

Peruna cures catarrh wherever located. Peruna is not a guess nor an experiment—it is an absolute scientific certainty. Peruna has no substitutes—no rivals. Insist upon having Peruna.

A free book written by Dr. Hartman, on the subject of catarrh in its different phases and stages, will be sent by The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio, upon request.

Rev. Irl R. Hicks Is Not Dead.

Notwithstanding a widely current rumor that the Rev. Irl R. Hicks was dead, he never was in better health, and never did a bolder and more successful year's work than that just closing. He has just completed his large and splendid Almanac for 1902 and with his staff of able helpers, has brought his journal, Word and Works, justly forward into international reputation. For a quarter of a century Mr. Hicks has grown in reputation and usefulness as the people's astronomer, and forecaster of storms and the charter of coming seasons. Never were his weather forecasts so sought after as now, his timely warning of a serious drought this year having saved the people from loss and suffering. Millions of bushels of wheat were harvested through his advice to plant crops that would mature early. The American people will certainly stand by Prof. Hicks, when it costs them so little and the benefits are so great. His fine Almanac of 200 pages is only 25c, and his splendid family journal is only one dollar a year including the Almanac. Send to Word and Works, Pub. Co., 2201 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo.

GEN. WADE HAMPTON

May Be Re-elected United States Senator Next Year.

Venerable Confederate Christian Statesman Who Was in the Arms of the People of South Carolina—A Pretty Contest.

The proposition to send Wade Hampton back to the United States senate has greatly stirred the people of South Carolina, but there are conflicting currents of opinion not many politicians had themselves in the most awkward predicament of their lives. In 1890, after serving 12 years in the senate and being fairly worshiped by the met, women and children of South Carolina, Hampton was rudely stricken from the list of the state's sons worthy to be honored. In a frenzy of political excitement perhaps never witnessed in this country before this illustrious general of the confederacy, the man who had in 1876 led South Carolinians to victory restoring the whites once again to power, the hero in war, the no less hero in peace, the man whose illness when governor had caused a hush to fall over the state while the people prayed in churches and by their heartiest wishes might be rewarded. He retired with dignity and merely said that he would never ask his people for anything again.

But those who have been sent Gen. Hampton, says the Chicago Chronicle, have known that the old chief was rarely won by this evidence of his people's ingratitude. Never a word would he say to indicate his feelings to the public, but he has believed the people were misled and that in time they would realize the wrong done them and that time has been coming for years. With the subsiding of factional bitterness has come a return of the old love and reverence for Hampton and a desire to wipe out if possible the injury to him. In a modest way the love always borne for him by the patriotic women was exemplified more than a year ago. The old general's home was destroyed by fire and by

General Wade Hampton. (Prominent Candidate for Senator from South Carolina.)

United action all over the state and without publicity a fund was subscribed which within a handsome home was built for him within the limits of Columbia as an evidence of South Carolina's love for her most distinguished son.

This was the soil, therefore, in which State Chairman Jones a few days ago threw the seed for a Hampton county harvest next year. He was a candidate for the office, but withdrew and asked the other candidates to do likewise in order that the old state might be without a contest, bestow the office on Hampton. Among the six candidates there were three shades of politics. State Chairman Jones and Congressman Lattimer belong to the Tillman faction, former Congressman Tillman and Senator McLaughlin to the other side, and Senator McLaughlin, formerly of the Tillman side, now representing views opposed by leaders of both the old factions and against whom the old factions have combined. Col. Jones has stepped out, and it is taken for granted the three conservatives will gladly make way for Hampton. That leaves Lattimer and McLaughlin. The former is credited with having been Senator Tillman's choice for the office, but in view of the popular belief that Senator Tillman is the father of this new scheme, it is supposed he is already assured that Lattimer will step out of the way. There is doubt as to what course Lattimer will take, or whether he will in the near future commit himself. His opponents argue that he will be glad of this opportunity to gracefully retire from the political field without risking a contest in which the odds are against him. Others maintain that he will remain a candidate and if Hampton is run against him and defeats him there will be no disgrace. McLaughlin's friends hold he is bound to fight for his principles, although assured that whatever the position of the people on the questions involved sentiment will elect Hampton by an overwhelming majority.

The general will not talk for publication, but it can be stated as a fact that while he will not ask for this or any other office in the gift of the people and will not make any canvass or in any way enter a scramble for the place, he will accept the honor and the office if tendered. In fact, coming at this time it is probable the honor will be more deeply appreciated than when he was previously bestowed on Gen. Hampton.

AN EMBEZZLING DOG.

He Wanted on Beer Funds Meant for Charity.

A sad story of animal depravity comes from a northern coal district. For some years a well-known colliery region has been blessed with the services of a brown retriever, who, with a collaring has strapped, saddle-wise across his back, was accustomed to travel from pit to pit heaving coppers, or even higher contributions, on behalf of a sick and benevolent fund. In this way he has sometimes obtained as much as 22 shillings in a single week, says the London Express, and the fund itself has been the means of doing an immense amount of good. Of course the miners themselves have been contributing out of their weekly earnings, and the dog excited so much interest among them by the faithful performance of his mission that they readily put their spare coppers into the box he carried.

Some time ago the dog happened to call at a public house, where he knew a good many of his patrons would be assembled. Besides dropping pennies into his box and regaling him with biscuits some of them used to tell him a story or two out of their mouths of beer. In this way the unfortunate animal acquired a liking for drink, with the most deplorable results. It was not that he occasionally became intoxicated and was thereby unable to pursue his errand of duty, but his wholesome nature became depraved. To such an extent had this deterioration gone that some day ago he was discovered by the side of the road in a perfectly helpless condition, with nothing remaining of his box except the straps. He was taken care of, and eventually got sober again, when his conduct became such as to excite the utmost wonder.

He whined piteously and tried to escape. By and by he became very violent, and the miners thought he was mad. They would not let him go, but tethered him to a long string, and then he led them to a place on the side of a rocky hill, where they discovered fragments of the collecting box and also the hiding place of the contents.

It seemed that after going his usual round on the preceding Saturday the dog had gone to this spot, and by some means—probably by rolling over and over on his back—broken the box splinters and released the money. He had then concealed the coins, and, helping himself to them as his degenerate cravings prompted, had spent more than half of the money in beer at various public houses in the neighborhood. Great indignation is felt with the publicans who supplied him, for they knew the dog well and ought to have noticed the absence of his collecting box. And, moreover, after the first four or five drinks his condition must have been a matter for remark.

It is now under careful restraint, and it is hoped that he may yet again resume his noble work.

A NEIGHBORHOOD NURSERY.

Plan for Having Children Care for at Small Cost.

"Establishing a neighborhood nursery will not be difficult if you know any young woman who all the children love, and who has to work for a living," writes Bertha Fogg Antoine, in the Ladies' Home Journal. "If so, suggest to her that she take charge of the neighborhood babies from three to seven years old for a certain sum per month. A large playground and a big room are necessary. The playground should have a heap of small stones and several mounds of nice dry sand. The playroom should have plenty of floor space. The governess should overlook the play and keep the tangles straightened out. She should punish only in exceptional cases, and by the mildest means, but she should interfere before a quarrel has reached dangerous proportions. As to the financial arrangements, circumstances must govern the details. The average female wage-earner receives five dollars a week, for six days' work of eight to ten hours' duration. To the $20 a month add five dollars for rent of room and playground, then divide by the number of children enrolled."

Creameries in Siberia.

The production of butter in Siberia has increased during the past few years to a very marked degree. In the vicinity of Banaul, for instance, there are at present 300 creameries, against two in 1896. The demand for milk vessels has consequently assumed large proportions. A factory for the production of these articles has lately been established at Banaul, but as it is not yet in operation

BUSINESS SIGNS.

A Firm's Picards a Fair Index to Its Financial Condition.

"The evolution of the sign is one of the interesting features of modern business methods," and an observant citizen of New Orleans, to a Times-Herald reporter, "told me when he came down to it the sign is a pretty good indication of what a city is in a business way. The business man who watches the signs in order to get the drift of the wind can tell whether it is with the city by the appearance of the signs which are plastered on the fronts of business houses and scrawled out on the boards. New Orleans is filled with elaborate signs—signs that are works of art, signs that tell a story of thrift and bustle, and progress and prosperity. The signs that are painted in cheap colors are disappearing. The metallic sign is now the proper thing. Metallic signs are put out in frames on the show windows. Go into Camp street, and in one of the big furniture establishments you will find one of these new metallic signs—signs in metal frame in one of the show windows. Go around in Greater street, and you will find entering the frame of the stone building occupied by the Whitney personal bank, and along the facing of the large windows, metallic signs which will proclaim the name of the institution to you, yet unborn. The letters are raised, with a polished surface, and a white leather background, which gives a prominent and artistic conception of the advertising. Signs of this kind are everywhere in the city, and they are played. More gorgeous signs glow in the wake of prosperous corporations. But they are conservatively gorgeous. They combine the beauties of the artistic concept with the skill and acumen of business sagacity, and behind them one may imagine without straining one's fancy, the lush and bustle, push and vim of really happy, up-to-date conditions. Go into the village where the business impulse is sluggish, where conditions are stagnant and untoward, where men are idling on the corners, whistling idly rainy-day air in the back room, or whistling on a dry goods-bag go into such a village, and you will find the weather-laten, mildewed sign, the battered sign with the fading letters, the drooping sign, the sign which is almost wrung from its hinges, and you may know the business of the town without looking at the balance sheet in the closing months. Yes, signs are a good index, and they tell a story more eloquently than pictures on the one hand or protestations on the other, and so I say the sign has become an interesting factor when we come to consider evolutionary processes in the business world, and the more elaborate and more artistic signs which we see today in full of good cheer for the commercial future."

BY-PRODUCT COKING.

Its History Illustrates the Slow Growth of Such Schemes.

The first mention of the by-product coking dates back to 1768, in which year the process was produced by a chemical year for the by-product of the coking process. In the early days of the process, the by-product was sold as a waste in the Rijnland provinces of Germany. Systematic experiments along these lines were made at France and Belgium many years ago, and in 1868 a by-product oven plant was in operation at St. Etienne, France. From that time until 1892, when Mr. L. Seneet, an eminent engineer and a director of the firm of Solvay & Co., of Brussels, Belgium, perfected the Seneet-Solvay retort coke oven system, this departure in fuel making underwent a gradual development. The first plant of this pattern was installed in the closing years of 1899, and since that time the system has met with great success in many coking fields.—Engineering Magazine.

The great lawyer had drawn up the woman's will and was reading it over to her. When he had finished she expressed her satisfaction. "That's right," she said. "There are some mighty queer words in it, but it has the right meaning." The lawyer took five sheets of blank legal cap paper and fastened them to the will. "What are you doing with all that paper?" she asked. "Madam," he replied, politely, "you are yet comparatively young, and presumably have many years to live. Knowing a little about your sex, I am now making proper provision for the codicils." Chicago Post.

The party of hunters who went to Arkansas had poor luck and returned this week ahead of time.

FOUR DEER

Brought Down And Much Smaller Game Bagged.

Hunters Have a Royal Time While On Their Outing in The Old Dominion.

Messrs. J. R. Caudle, P. B. Pendleton, Pete Barker and Capt. S. R. White, the members of the Christian County Hunting Club who went to Virginia two weeks ago on a hunting expedition, returned home Tuesday. They killed four deer and a large number of birds. Mr. Pendleton succeeded in bringing down two fine specimens of Caracus Virginianus, and Mr. Caudle and Mr. Barker killed one each. The deer of that section, when jumped, have regular routes and none passed Capt. White's way, hence he failed to get a shot.

They only hunted five days and as it was unusually dry the dogs experienced much difficulty in trailing. Quail were plentiful and afforded excellent sport.

The hunters were royally entertained during their stay and all enjoyed the outing to the fullest extent.

The hunting grounds visited were about fifty miles South of Richmond, and while sport is good in that section of the state, large game is said to be much more plentiful nearer the Blue Ridge mountains.

The gentlemen are pleased with the outlook for a location for future club hunts and they will open up correspondence at once with a view of establishing grounds for that purpose. They may decide, however, to return to their "first love," Arkansas. In that case the club will buy land, establish regular hunting grounds, build upon same and employ men to look after their property the year round.

The steamer John K Speed struck an obstruction just below Memphis and sank. No lives were lost.
